227-96½-New. Where there is a general finding against defendant on two counts, one of which is sustained by the evidence and the other not so sustained, a judgment not specifying on which count it is based will be presumed to be based on the count sustained by the evidence. 200Ind528, 164NE271; 89 IndA91, 165NE769.

227-96½-New. If under any view of the evidence verdicts on several counts are consistent the presumption is that the jury took that view. 84Colo 166, 268P536.

227-96¼-New. The court on appeal from conviction on two counts, one for manufacturing, and the other keeping for sale, intoxicating liquor, may not assume that the state claimed conviction on both counts for the same liquor, but must regard the two counts as charging separate and distinct offenses. 108Conn 454, 143A561.

It has been held not prejudicial error to tell the jury that court could not direct a verdict except to acquit, where defendant had moved for direction of acquittal, and the court explained that it could not itself determine the case when the evidence was conflicting. 49RI 397, 143A604.

339-61¼-New. Refusal of trial court to advise acquittal is not reversible error. 50SD32, 208NW164.

339-61½-New. In jurisdictions where court may only advise but cannot direct acquittal refusal to advise cannot be said to be prejudicial for the reason that the jury may disregard the advice. 49SD456, 207NW456.

339-61⅛-New. Erroneous refusal to direct a verdict of acquittal where there is no evidence other than that of accomplice to connect defendant with the crime is reversible error. Iowa 228NW 286.

339-61⅞-New. Other instances of harmless error in refusing to direct verdict. Miss 128S891.

603-15 10CustA172; 14CustA159.
603-17½-New. Treasury department regulations do not alter or amend the customs law but only regulate the mode of carrying out its provisions. 21F(2d) 484.
603-22 13F(2d)489. [a] Treasury decisions, though signed by assistant secretary, have been held compliance with law. 13F(2d)489.
603-22⅓-New. [§ 68a] B½. Tariff Commission. Commission cannot pass on validity of patents. 39F(2d)247.
603-22⅓-New. Commission's findings will not be disturbed and appeal to Court of Customs and Patent Appeals is one of law only. 39F(2d)247 (methods and presumption of findings).
603-22¼-New. Questions as to patent's validity became moot on investigation of importer's practices where patent had expired and president released embargo on patented products. 39F(2d) 247.
603-22½-New. Evidence has been held sufficient to sustain findings of Commission. 39F(2d)247.
603-22⅙-New. (5) Commission's refusal to permit examination by respondents of complainant's book has been held no error where books were always open for inspection. 39F(2d)247. (6) Member of commission concurring in findings as to unfair practices of importers should be held to have concurred in findings of unfair competition. 39F(2d)247.
603-22⅐-New. What constitutes unfair competition is matter of law for courts not for Commission. 39F(2d)247.
603-26 10CustA62; 11CustA38; 16 CustA392; 16CustA418 (presumption held not overcome by record); 16CustA 472. [b] Presumption that goods could not be marked so as to indicate country of origin does not arise from mere delivery of merchandise to importer without being marked. 16CustA282.
604-28½-New. Articles allowed to go into the commerce of the country without marking as to the country of origin are presumed to have been found by the collector to have been incapable of marking without injury. 16CustA61.
604-28⅓-New. Such presumption is not overcome by fact that additional duty is afterwards assessed because the goods were not marked. 16CustA61.
604-30 46Philippine467.
604-38½-New. Where a collector takes possession of merchandise because an imperfect entry has been made, he becomes the bailee, under ordinary obligations as such. 34F(2d)612 (liable for conversion when goods delivered to wrong persons).

604–40 34F(2d)612.

605–62 21F(2d)484.

605–73 [a] Under statute collector of customs is personally liable for wrongful delivery of merchandise without production of bill of lading. 35F(2d) 541.

606–81½–New. In Philippines the collector of custom is personally liable for wrongful delivery of merchandise although he took a bond to protect himself from liability. 46Philippine207.

606–81⅓–New. Collector of customs, permitting party not the owner to enter goods, pay duty, and receive goods, is liable for conversion. 21F(2d)484.

606–81¼–New. Collector of customs, delivering goods to wrong party, cannot defeat action for conversion on the ground that his control over the goods was merely for customs purposes. 21 F(2d)484.

606–81⅕–New. Consignor of goods, holding bill of lading to his own order indorsed per pro consignor by his attorney, is proper party to sue for conversion of goods. 21F(2d)484.

606–81⅙–New. Customs collector, refusing to permit consignor of goods consigned to his order to make entry and pay duty, is liable for conversion. 21 F(2d)484.

606–81⅐–New. Pro forma invoice not shown to have come to notice of collector of customs does not relieve him from liability for delivery to wrong party. 21F(2d)484.

607–19½–New. Ferry boats have been held subject to the requirement for extra compensation for overtime service performed by customs officials. 13F(2d) 489.

607–19⅓–New. Overtime pay allowed customs officials is payable for work after hours, whether or not the officer worked regular hours on such day. 13 F(2d)489.

607–19¼–New. Overtime pay for customs officials for services between 5 P. M. and 8 A. M. has been held to apply to services between 12:01 A. M. and 8 A. M. and between 5 P. M. and midnight, on Sundays and holidays, although the statute provides additional overtime pay for Sundays and holidays. 13F(2d) 489.

607–22 [a] De facto appraiser.–15CustA 83.

608–27 13CustA130.

609–57 13CustA112.

609–58 13CustA245.

609–60 13CustA61.

609–61½–New. The rules must be reasonable. 13CustA273.

610–75 13CustA245.

610–85 [a] Evidence held sufficient to warrant action of secretary of treasury in revoking license. 20F(2d)249.

610–88½–New. In an action by a broker and freight forwarder, questions of agency and the reasonableness and necessity of the services are for the jury. Mass 166NE768 (testimony on irrelevant issue is inadmissible but not prejudicial).

610–88⅓–New. [§ 94a] G. Other Officers. In Canada, a customs officer who seizes a ship outside of the territorial limits of Canada while not in hot pursuit and without other justifying circumstances is not entitled to protection under the Customs Act, and is liable to the master as bailee for the value of the cargo. NS [1928] 2DomLR263.

610–88¼–New. In such case an action by the master as bailee of the cargo is not barred by an action by the owner of the vessel for wrongful detention of the ship. NS [1928] 2DomLR263.

610–90 [a] (7) Vessel does not make "entry" under customs laws by arriving at port, but "entry," in technical sense of navigation laws, means compliance with regulations of port for purpose of taking on or discharging passengers or cargo, not merely putting in for orders or supplies or repairs. 26F(2d)606.

612–17½–New. Statute relating to ownership of imported goods for customs purposes does not conflict with treasury regulation permitting entry of goods, without bill of lading, on giving bond. 21F(2d)484.

612–18 See also 11CustA357. [a] (3) Purpose of manifest under Tariff Act of 1922. 28F(2d)215.

612–21 See also 11CustA508.

613–39 10CustA262(2dcase) (estoppel to deny authority). See also 11CustA466.

614–53½–New. Any doubt in construction of provisions of a tariff act relating to filing of duress entries should be resolved in favor of the government and against the importer. 16CustA268.

614–53⅓–New. Provisions of Tariff Act of 1922 § 489 relative to duress entries cover only such merchandise as is comparable in value to that involved in cases pending on appeal. 16CustA268.

614–53¼–New. Merchandise of higher value due to ascending market cannot be brought within such provisions. 16 CustA268.

614–53⅕–New. Under such provisions merchandise entered in duress entries must be at appraised value in pending case. 16CustA268.

615–80 [d] Certificate as to depreciated currency is not conclusive as to whether goods were purchased with it. 10CustA 247.

616–97 See also 12CustA198.

616–5½–New. An appraisement not made as prescribed by law is void. 11 CustA351.

616–6 See also 13CustA161; 15CustA 143. [b] Evidence of market value.–12 CustA520. [c] Cost and not value of containers and coverings is to be taken into consideration. 14CustA120. [d] Free open market exists where watch crystals are sold to wholesale dealers and trade discount is allowed on identically same conditions to every wholesale dealer, local or foreign. 16CustA37. [e] Allowance of special rebates at end of year on purchases of stated quantities during such period in addition to regular discounts cannot be considered in ascertaining foreign value. 16CustA185.

617–7 See also 11CustA94. [d] "Such or similar merchandise."–16CustA19.

617–8½–New. Dutiable value cannot be fixed by comparison by taking proportionate part of value of other kinds of goods. 16CustA19.

617–8⅓–New. An appraisement based upon rather than at the value of similar merchandise is contrary to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1922. 16 CustA122.

617–8¼–New. No export value is shown where the importer is the sole purchaser in the foreign country for export to United States and it does not appear that similar merchandise was sold for such export. 16CustA185.

617–8⅕–New. Evidence has been held to sustain finding that foreign value of goods was dutiable value and exceeded export value. 16CustA293.

617–8⅙–New. A thing may be similar chemically without being similar within provision for taking the price or value of a similar article for the value of an imported article. 16CustA347.

617–8⅐–New. The phrase "usual wholesale quantities" as used in the Tariff Act of 1922 refers to a major portion of the sales or offers for sale of the merchandise in question and not to sporadic sales or sales in minor quantities. 16 CustA507.

617–8⅛–New. Finding that dutiable value of imported Japanese silk piece goods was its export value held supported by substantial evidence. 16CustA 542.

617–8⅑–New. Goods cannot be taken from foreign value provision by a few changes in structure, or a new name, or restriction to American purchasers. 16 CustA19.

617–8 1/10–New. An article is not to be regarded as similar or not similar within such provision solely because of whims, petty prejudices, or like considerations of trade in reference to commercial interchangeability of merchandise. 16CustA347.

617–8 1/11–New. Sale for home consumption in foreign country of rejects and goods for which orders had been canceled does not establish foreign value where it appears that there was no wholesale market for such merchandise. 16CustA542.

617–8 1/12–New. Evidence held to support finding that imported rock candy was similar to that freely offered to home consumption in Holland. 16CustA347.

617–9 See also 15CustA262.

617–15 But see 11CustA115.

618–25 12CustA42.

618–25½–New. Invoice value alone is not sufficient basis upon which to fix cost of production. 16CustA398.

618–25⅓–New. Samples and booklets of samples of wool cloth universally given away to domestic and foreign customers of exporters have no foreign or export value and, in absence of showing of value in United States, are dutiable at cost of production. 16CustA398.

622–18½–New. The appraisement of a local appraiser is not vacated by an appeal to reappraisement. 16CustA382.

622–18⅓–New. Upon dismissal of an appeal to reappraisement the appraisement of the local appraiser becomes effective. 16CustA398.

624–42 See also 12CustA126; 12CustA 376; 14CustA381.

624–47½–New. The statute requiring the payment of a fee as a condition precedent is mandatory. 10CustA179.

624–47⅓–New. The payment of the fee required by statute is jurisdictional. 12 CustA145.

624–47¼–New. The trial in reappraisement is de novo. 14CustA10.

624–47⅕–New. On appeal to reappraisement the hearing before the single general appraiser is a trial de novo. 16 CustA161.

624–47⅙–New. Trial before single justice of United States customs court on reappraisement is de novo. 16CustA 293.

624–47⅐–New. On such hearing appraised value is to be determined from weight of evidence with no presumption of the correctness of the appraiser's action. 16CustA161.

624–47⅛–New. On such trial there is no presumption of the correctness of the appraiser's return. 16CustA293.

624–50½–New. The proceedings in reappraisement are de novo. 15CustA235.

624–50⅓–New. Findings of United States customs court affirming decision on reappraisement have been held sustained by evidence. 16CustA37.

624–50¼–New. Where no two justices of the customs court concur in findings of fact there is nothing on which a judgment can be entered. 16CustA56.

624–50⅕–New. On appeal in reappraisement to United States Customs Court question is whether decision of single appraising justice is supported by weight of evidence. 16CustA161.

624-50⅙-New. On reappraisement the United States customs court is required by statute to find essential facts. 16 CustA293.
624-50⅐-New. A special concurrence in the result by one of the justices of the United States customs court is a concurrence in the findings of fact stated in the majority opinion. 16CustA293.
624-56½-New. Record in one reappraisement proceeding is not admissible in another involving similar merchandise unless witnesses are produced for cross examination as required by rule. 16CustA263.
624-58½-New. The review extends to the law and facts. 13CustA373.
625-62 13CustA259. But see 11CustA 459.
625-71 11CustA430.
626-82½-New. A re-reappraisement is a proceeding de novo. 15CustA4.
626-82⅓-New. The custom court, in reviewing the reappraisement, is required to make written findings. 15 CustA422.
626-82¼-New. The appellate division of the customs court is required to make findings of fact and state them in a written decision and failure to do so is reversible error. 16CustA56.
626-82⅕-New. The jurisdiction of United States Court of Customs Appeals in reappraisement cases is limited to questions of law. 16CustA185.
626-82⅙-New. Findings of the lower court on questions of fact are conclusive on the court of customs appeals where they are supported by substantial evidence. 16CustA220.
626-82⅐-New. Although mandate of court of customs appeals requiring the United States customs court to find certain facts has not been complied with the state of the record may justify the court of customs appeals in making decision on the merits. 16CustA293.
626-82⅛-New. A finding that merchandise had no export value will be held to be without evidence to sustain it where the record fails to show that merchandise similar to that imported was not freely offered for sale in the principal markets of the foreign country for exportation to the United States. 16 CustA122.
626-82⅑-New. On appeal in reappraisement to United States Court of Customs Appeals the decision of the court below will be affirmed if there is any substantial evidence supporting the special finding of facts. 16CustA161.
626-82 1/10-New. Judgment will be affirmed if supported by any substantial evidence. 16CustA448.
626-82 1/11-New. Where United States Customs Court makes no finding as to value except a finding of export value which is not supported by evidence the judgment must be reversed. 16CustA 185.
626-82 1/12-New. On such appeal the decision will be reversed if any material fact is found to be without substantial evidence to support it. 16CustA161.
626-82 1/13-New. The court has no authority to review the evidence for purpose of determining its weight. 16 CustA448.

634-38¼-New. By force of statute there may be remission when the importer has acted in good faith. 13CustA409; 13 CustA562; 14CustA76; 14CustA105.
634-38⅕-New. The statutory right to remission may be lost by failure to make due inquiry when put on notice. 14 CustA13; 14CustA44.
634-38⅙-New. Express statutory provision has been made for remission of additional duties under given circumstances. 13CustA295.
634-38⅐-New. Where the statute allows remission a consignee who acts as the importer's agent may file petition therefor. 13CustA498.
634-38⅛-New. Statutes providing for remission of additional duties are liberally construed. 13CustA273.
634-38⅑-New. The requirement that the petition for remission be verified may be waived. 13CustA432.
634-38 1/10-New. The failure of the importer to inquire as to the value of goods, when he has no knowledge, precludes remission. 15CustA418.
634-38 1/11-New. The importer is bound to exercise the utmost good faith in order to warrant remission. 15CustA57 (burden of proof).
634-38 1/12-New. Under Tariff Act (1922) § 489, providing for remission of additional duties for undervaluation where there was no intention to defraud the government or conceal or misrepresent facts, it has been held that the importer was not entitled to remission. 13CustA 498; 13CustA589.

1144-5½-New. A widow's suit for mutilation of her daughter's corpse held not barred because she was not told before interment that the casket was dropped by the railroad. 219Ky528, 293SW1091.

1145-13½-New. A widow has the right to refuse to permit an autopsy of her husband's body. 154Tenn295, 294SW1097, 52ALR1442.

1145-13⅓-New. She may also limit her consent to an autopsy in any way she chooses. 154Tenn295, 294SW1097, 52ALR1442.

1145-19½-New. Under South Dakota statute consent of the father of a child is not sufficient to authorize an autopsy on the child where the father and mother are living together within the state, and does not constitute a defense to an action by the mother for unauthorized autopsy. 50SD372, 210NW348, 48ALR1205.

1146-22 See also 21AlaA5, 105S161 [cit CJ].

1146-30½-New. Removal of body by cemetery company, without necessary religious rites and without notice to plaintiff states sufficient cause of action. 14PaDist&Co 237.

1146-33 8PaDist&Co 612; 142Wash469, 253P654.

1146-34½-New. The nearest relation may maintain an action for unwarranted interference with the burial of the body of a relative or for unwarranted withholding of the body from burial. 218Ala354, 118S644.

1147-36 See also 21AlaA5, 105S161 [cit CJ] (in absence of wife father had lawful custody of body of son).

1147-37½-New. Father as nearest relative present is a proper party plaintiff in a tort action for interference with burial of son's body. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-37⅓-New. Surviving husband and children of deceased may be joined in an action for improper and indecent burial. 3Del323, 138A273.

1147-37¼-New. Where an ancient burial ground in which historic and prominent personages are buried is being desecrated, any church, patriotic organization, or person of the community may appear as joint parties plaintiff in equity to restrain such desecration. 8PaDist&Co 612.

1147-41½-New. Complaint alleging that plaintiff had been delayed in burying his son by act of defendant's insurance company's employee in refusing to surrender death certificate held to state a cause of action. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-41⅓-New. A declaration alleging that defendants performed an autopsy on the body of plaintiff's husband in an open space in a cemetery and removed and kept the heart contrary to stipulation that an autopsy be made in a decent way, not in open or public place and without mutilation of body, states a cause of action. 154Tenn295, 294SW1097, 52ALR1442.

1147-42½-New. In an action based upon invasion of parent's right to sepulture, allegations of negligence resulting in death, breach of contract for maintenance and care of child, and of signs of mutilation and suspicious death, are irrelevant. 217AppDiv510, 217NYS401.

1147-42⅓-New. A complaint has been held sufficient for refusal to surrender a body. 218Ala354, 118S644.

1147-42¼-New. Petition held sufficient to state cause of action for removal of husband's body. 12LaA675, 127S70 (exception should be overruled).

1147-47½-New. Evidence of place where blank death certificates were kept by board of health is relevant on issue of diligence in securing second death certificate in action for wrongful interference with burial by retention of death certificate. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47⅓-New. That body was not embalmed is relevant to show urgent necessity of avoiding delay in carrying out funeral arrangements, in action for interference with burial. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47¼-New. Length of time body remained in undertaker's shop before it could be legally buried is relevant in action for wrongful interference with burial by retention of death certificate. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47⅙-New. All facts and circumstances tending to show delay in burial, caused by refusal of defendants to return certificate of death are relevant and admissible in action for interference with burial. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47⅙-New. In an action for wrongful interference with burial of body of plaintiff's son, it is immaterial as to who were members of plaintiff's family. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47⅐-New. In an action against an insurance company for interference with burial of body of plaintiff's son by wrongful retention of death certificate, it is not relevant as to when plaintiff obtained an insurance policy on the son from defendants nor that suit on that policy was defeated on ground of fraud. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47⅛-New. Question for jury. Diligence in procuring second death certificate so as to minimize damage held for jury in action for interference with burial by retention of first certificate. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47⅛-New. Certificate of death is prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-47 1/10-New. In actions against coroners for unauthorized autopsies, evidence has been examined and held insufficient to show any ground for supposition that death was caused by unlawful means so as to authorize an autopsy. 50SD372, 210NW348, 48ALR1205.

1147-47 1/11-New. Defendant held not entitled to peremptory instruction. 219Ky528, 293SW1091.

1147-47 1/12-New. In a mother's action against a burial society for wrongful detention of her daughter's remains after demand, plaintiff's conversation with defendant's manager, relating to the disposition of the body and its condition and evidence of the time when it was buried, has been held admissible. 218Ala354, 118S644.

1147-47 1/13-New. In an action by the nearest relative for defendant's refusal to surrender the dead body for burial, it is not necessary to specify wherein the refusal was wrongful nor to show the time, place, or manner of demand. 218Ala354, 118S644.

1147-51½-New. In father's suit for interference with burial of son's body plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages for resulting trouble and delay as well as loss of consolation of wife and relatives at time of burial. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-51⅓-New. Vexation, wrong, or distress of mind as natural proximate and reasonably to be expected result of withholding death certificate by insurance company may constitute support for award of additional compensation damages in father's action for interference with burial of son's body. 21AlaA5, 105S161.

1147-52½-New. $500 damages for mutilation of corpse held not excessive. 219Ky528, 293SW1091.

1147-52⅓-New. A mother's recovery for wrongful refusal of a burial society to deliver up the remains of her daughter on demand, and for the burial society's improper detention of the body for another day, has been held not limited to nominal damages. 218Ala354, 118S644.

1147-52¼-New. Inability to be at the burial is not an element of damage. 218Ala354, 118S644.

1147-52⅛-New. A mother, suing a burial society for damages for wrongful refused to surrender her daughter's dead body to her on demand, has been held not entitled to exemplary damages, where no want of respect for the body or other aggravating circumstances or willful misconduct was alleged. 218Ala 354, 118S644.

645-13½-New. But the petitioners may dismiss the proceeding in the manner provided by statute. 172Minn295, 215 NW204.
645-17 319 Ill 72, 149NE583 (petition held not functus officio after withdrawal for corrections and amendments); 323 Ill 350, 154NE153; 136 Okl 47, 275P622.
646-19 [a] Where petitioners did not represent majority of land as required by statute, petition could not be amended to produce necessary proportion of signers and acreage to give court jurisdiction. 323 Ill 350, 154NE 153.
646-24 338 Ill 67, 170NE1. [a] Petition for organization of district in adjacent counties need not be first filed with clerk of supreme court. 136 Okl 47, 275P622.
647-44½-New. The fact that some of the signers of the petition did not sign the bond as was agreed between the parties initiating the petition will not affect the enforcibility of the bond when the bond was received and acted upon by the county in good faith and without knowledge of such agreement and of the violation thereof. 200 Iowa 1133, 206NW26.
647-44⅓-New. Such knowledge on the part of a member of the board of supervisors will not be imputed to the county where such member was a landowner within the proposed district and therefore disqualified to act in the proceedings. 200 Iowa1133, 206NW26.
647-44¼-New. Sureties on a bond are estopped to plead nonliability because conditions on which they signed had been violated where they filed the bond or caused it to be filed with knowledge or with ready means of knowing that such conditions had been violated and stood in silence while the county, at large expense, acted thereon. 200 Iowa 1133, 206NW26.
647-44½-New. Statutory bond given by engineer covers negligence in survey, supervision of construction, and issuance of certificate for payments to the contractor in the progress of the work. 176Minn15, 222NW289 (added conditions are surplusage).
647-44¾-New. Surety on an engineer's bond is not released from liability for his negligence in issuing certificates by the fact of the auditor's negligence in issuing warrants on certificates. 176 Minn15, 222NW289.

647–44½–New. In an action on an engineer's bond for negligence in issuing certificates, neither the subcontractor repaying excess money nor his surety is a necessary party. 176Minn15, 222 NW289.
